E. W. ROACH ANSWERS SOME REPORTS.

Among the names below you will find those of ministers and educators who are known to our readers as men of great abilities. Consider what these men say.

"Mr. E. W. Roach announces himself in our columns as a candidate for County Court Clerk. It is a pleasure for us to say that Mr. Roach is eminently worthy of the place. He is a cultured, scholarly gentleman and knows how to keep records in good style and proper order. He is cordial, social, accommodating and will serve the people, if elected, in a way to please all. There is not a more competent man for the place available in the whole county, and we beg our readers to remember Mr. Roach on election day.—Eld J. N. Hall, Aug. 27 1904.

"I have known E. W. Roach for some time, and I am glad to give him my endorsement as an educated christian gentleman. If the country had no other kind than he, lawlessness and crime would have but little show in the land.—Rev. E. B. Ramsey, Oct. 8 1904.

"I have known E. W. Roach for several years. We met in Teachers Institute where he was always useful and popular. I believe him to be an honorable christian gentleman who will do his duty under all circumstances. Rev. E. C. McDougle, Sept 8 1904."

"For a number of years it has been my pleasure to know Mr. E. W. Roach, and I have found him at all time and under all circumstances to be a courteous christian gentleman, one in whom the people may unhesitatingly repose confidence.—Rev. W. E. Dodd, Sept 3 1904."

"I have known E. W. Roach for several years. I have met him in many Teachers' Institute and Associations in which he always takes a prominent and an able part. I regard him as a gentleman in the true sense, as a good scholar and a man of talent. In many respects he is a genius. I think highly of Mr. Roach—Prof. T. J. Coates."

"I have known E. W. Roach intimately for several years. He has been a regular attendant of my church at Liberty for about five years. I have been with him in the Sunday School, church and home, and I have seen him tried in the sick room and by the death bed. I know him to be a nice christian gentleman, worthy of the esteem confidence and hearty support of all for the office he seeks.—Rev. G. L. Ellis, Aug. 27 1904."

"I have known Mr. E. W. Roach for several years and I can say truthfully that he is a christian gentleman and well qualified to fill any position to which he may be elected.—Rev. C. L. Price, Oct. 24 1904.

To the voters of Fulton County I take this method to kill some reports being industriously circulated over the country reflecting on me. The above people know me well and I think the giving to the public this time the expression of their opinions in regard to my character to be the proper way of answering such reports, one of which was that I had withdrawn from the race because I was close at home attending my wife in her illness. I shall appreciate your support in the primary, and if elected, I shall strive to make you a good clerk. E. W. Roach.

Find Two Headed Snake.

Woodstock, Va.,—A moccasin snake with two heads was brought to town by a farmer boy. The heads were set at right angles over a body of eight inches long and two inches in diameter. One exactly like it was found in the same spot fifty years ago, and was preserved in a jar of alcohol. The snake was found on the north branch of the Shenandoah River, at the foot of Massanutten Mountains. The boy who found the snake captured it alive, as it seemed chilled by the cold. It is offered as a natural history museum prize.

In Memoriam.

Mrs. Nancy A. Menees, (nee Burns) wife of J. F. Menees, was born in Smith county Tenn., May 2 1831 and died September 13 1904. The funeral services were conducted by her pastor G. L. Lowery in the presence of a large number of friends and loved ones. Her remains were laid to rest in the cemetery at Ebenezer to await the resurrection morn. She was converted at the age of seventeen and joined the Methodist church in which she lived a consistent member until God called her home. She was indeed a helpmeet to her husband and an ever ready to grant the wishes of her children. As a neighbor she was always ready to do some kind and charitable deed. She was a devoted wife and mother and loved her boys and was always a ray of sunshine to them in their homes. For thirteen days her suffering was indescribable, yet she bore it with patience and christian fortitude. In speaking of dying she said that all was well, that it would be a happy exchange for her. Blessed are the dead that die in the Lord.

One Who Knew Her.

A Card of Thanks.

Most sincerely do I wish to express my gratitude to those loyal citizens of Hickman who opened their hearts and homes and rendered myself and my children such prompt assistance immediately after our recent loss by fire and particularly the Ladies Aid Society of the different churches who kindly sympathies with busy needles, not only succeeded in administering to our present comfort, but most deeply ingratiating themselves into our hearts. May God's choicest blessings rest upon them ever one Mrs. STANCILL
